

Dr Raphael Lyne

9 July 2019

BritInn Fellowship

Dr Raphael Lyne, University of Cambridge

Every aspect of my Fellowship (25th-28th June) was excellent. Plans and arrangements were expertly handled by my hosts Prof Dr Sibylle Baumbach and Christof Diem. The audience at my lecture were generous with their attention, and asked questions that will prove very helpful to me as the project develops. The workshop was a stimulating discussion, with participants at all levels. It was very productive to have the chance to discuss joint interests in detail with both my hosts, and I look forward to working with them more in the future. Finally, I would like to thank the other members of the departments (Anglistik and Amerikanistik) who made me feel very welcome during their coffee break on a remarkably hot day!

Dr Raphael Lyne

Reader in Renaissance Literature, Faculty of English, Fellow of Murray Edwards College